

AGENDA

Do European industry and consumers need decarbonised and renewable gas to achieve carbon neutrality in 2050?

Tuesday, 9 June 2020
09:30 – 11:00

09:30 Welcome by the moderator

Sonja van Rensen, Freelance Energy, Climate and Environment Journalist

09:35 Presentation of the preliminary findings of the DNV GL Study 'A pathway to 2050'

Warner ten Kate, Senior Consultant, Markets and Transaction Advisory DNV GL

09:45 Q&A with the audience on the study

09:55 Panel discussion on the need for renewable and decarbonised gases in European industry and for European consumers

Augustijn Van Haasteren, Team Leader, Sector Coupling, DG ENER

Andreas Graf, Project Manager EU Energy Policy, Agora Energiewende

Monique Goyens, Director General, BEUC

Benedikt Herges, Head of EU Government Affairs, Siemens Energy

Renaud Batier, Director General, Cerame-Unie

Esther Busscher, President, Liquid Gas Europe

Anastasios Perimenis, Carbon Capture & Utilisation Officer and Interim
Secretary General, CO₂ Value Europe

10:40 Q&A with the audience

10:55 Closing words

James Watson, Secretary General, Eurogas