

EPCs: delivering real energy savings from EU to local level

Thursday 20 June, 11.00-12.30, Brussels

Panel Discussion

11.00 – 12.00

EPC in the public sector: key elements for their right implementation, opportunities/ challenges and the impact of the new Eurostat/EIB accounting rules

Introduced and moderated by: Monica Frassoni, President of EU-ASE

- 1. The role of energy efficiency in the EU long-term strategy (LTS): how can EPCs help to decarbonise the European economy
Intervention by the European Commission (Paula Rey-Garcia, Team leader Buildings & Finance, DG ENER)
- 2. The new EPC accounting rules for the public sector one year later: what has worked and what needs to be improved?
Intervention by the European Investment Bank (Robert Pernetta, Financial Instrument Advisor, EIB)
- 3. Member States' perspective: the application of the Eurostat rules and related Practitioner's guide - The case of Slovakia
Intervention by Ivan Lesay, CEO, Slovak Investment Holding (SK)
- 4. Local authorities' perspective: EPC uptake in Cities and Regions
Intervention by Silvio De Nigris, project manager of Piemonte Region - STEPPING Project
Intervention by Luke Sherlock, Programme Manager, C40
- 5. How to ensure that savings are real? The central role of M&V in implementing energy efficiency programs.
Intervention by Pierre Langlois, chairman of the board, EVO

Interactive Session and Q&A

12.00 – 12.30

Open dialogue between panelists, businesses, and attendees on how to ensure effective implementation of EPCs

Moderated by Pascal Guillaume, President of EFIEES

- Katarzyna Wardal, EU Public Affairs Manager, Knauf Insulation
- Joan Vidal, Energy Solutions Development Leader, Honeywell
- Razvan Grecu, President of ARPEE
- Alkisti Florou, project manager of AEGEA, Stepping project
- Samuel Thomas, Senior Advisor at the Regulatory Assistance Project (RAP)

Concluding remarks by Volker Dragon, President of eu.ESCO